

CANDO

Creating Success

Converse Area New Development Organization

Agency Guidelines for TANF Proof of Eligibility

The State of Wyoming and the federal government requires proof of the following information in order to demonstrate eligibility for services funded by the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program.

Proof of Income (may be authenticated in one of two ways.)

1. Submit a copy of last month's pay stub with the application.
 - 1a. Any additional support should also be listed and documented if possible. Social Security, child support, Tips, POWER, SNAP, Medicaid, etc.
2. Or a copy of all the children's equality cards.
3. If individual did not work last month, a written statement to that effect signed by them will work. (Top of application pg 2.)

Proof of Family

1. A copy of all family member's social security cards.
2. If a child has a different last name than the parent, a copy of birth certificate is also required.
3. All members of the family must be listed on this report.
 - 3a. Please note whether child is in home, state care, or other. (Middle section of application pg 2.)

The original, completed paperwork may be mailed or submitted in person to:

CANDO
130 South Third Street,
Douglas, WY 82633

CANDO keeps all applications confidential and in a secure locked location. Processing Agent must also keep client's paperwork confidential and in a secure locked location.